Digital Files

A brief guide to Copyright

For detailed information please visit our website HERE

- It is a legal requirement for you / your organisation to comply with copyright law.
- Unauthorised file sharing is illegal. Files can only be used by the individual purchaser.
- If you download one of our products and wish to add the files to your organisation's internal computer network, usually you would need to purchase a Product Site Licence. However, for 'Caliban The Monster' there is no need for this. N.B. While you are permitted to add the files to your intranet, you must not add them to any external network.
- Printing, projection, recording, streaming and data storage of song lyrics and/or music should be reported online via your CCLI account.
- Printing out scripts and/or sheet music should be recorded on the appropriate agency report form (eg. CLA, SPML)
- It is not necessary to obtain a performing licence for 'Caliban The Monster'.
