Finish

Well done!

You have completed the Shakespeare story.

Take a (theatrical) bow!

34

Do you know?
First Folio of plays is published by his friends in 1623.

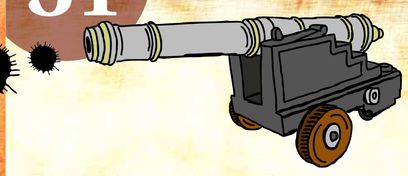

33

Shakespeare dies in 1616 and is buried at Holy Trinity Church in Stratford-upon-Avon.

32

31

Globe Theatre burns down in 1613 after a mortar rack (simulating a cannon offstage) misfires during Henry VIII.

Go back to square 27

30

Shakespeare's Sonnets are published in 1609.

24

Shakespeare is fined in 1598 for tax evasion and hoarding grain in times of shortage.

Go back to square 12

25

26

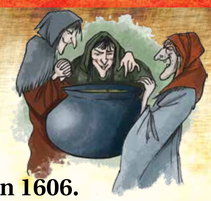

Do you know?
The Globe Theatre opens in London in 1599. Because some people cannot read, coloured flags are used to advertise the plays - red for history, white for comedy and black for tragedy.

27

28

29

Writes Macbeth in 1606.
Do you know?
King James I is scared of witches and executes hundreds of suspects.

Recite the witches' spell:
'Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble.'

23

22

Shakespeare buys New Place in 1597 for £120.

Move up to square 26

21

20

Shakespeare's

19

Shakespeare performs his comedies for Elizabeth I in 1594 at the Royal Palace of Greenwich.

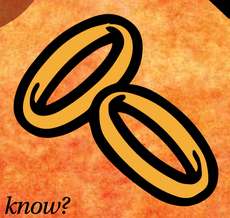

Tell a joke and move up to square 28

18

Do you know?
By 1592 Shakespeare is thought to have written his first plays, including The Two Gentlemen of Verona and Titus Andronicus.

12

Do you know?
William marries Anne in 1582. He is 18 and she is 26 and pregnant!

13

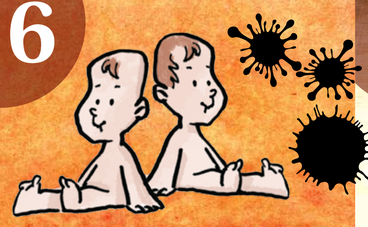

Daughter, Susanna, is born in 1583.

14

15

Quills and Spills

16

Twins Hamnet and Judith are born in 1585 but miss their father as he is working in London a lot.

Go back to square 6

17

11

William starts wooing Anne Hathaway.

Get on bended knee and declare your love! Move up to square 14

10

9

Young William is late for school and is beaten with a switch (twigs)!

Go back to square 2

8

Do you know?
Queen Elizabeth I visits Kenilworth Castle in 1575. Maybe William goes to the welcome party to see her!

Dance a Tudor jig

7

Do you know?
Beer is the standard drink in Shakespeare's day as water is unclean – even children drink it (small beer)!

6

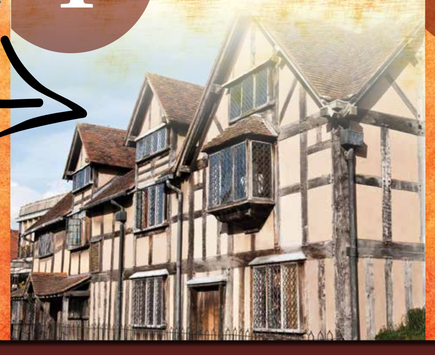

Shakespeare birthplace trust

Start

William Shakespeare is born 1564 in Henley Street, Stratford-upon-Avon.

1

2

3

Starts King Edward VI Grammar School and learns Latin.

Recite the Latin phrase 'Salvete pueri/ Salve magister'
(Good morning boys/Good morning master)
and move up to square 15

4

5

Helps father, John, in his glover's workshop.

Do you know?
Urine is used to process the leather – a smelly business!